

ARTS & CRAFTS

We suggest you put aside a day for shopping so that you can visit the old markets in town as well as the boutiques (and cafés). Start your shopping adventure by visiting Viroth's own Oko Gallery, located directly across the street from Viroth's Hotel. It is filled with beautiful and exotic products that will serve as reminders of your time in Cambodia.

OKO GALLERY

THEAM HOUSE

After years spent helping Artisans Angkor revitalise Khmer handicrafts, Cambodian artist and designer Theam now operates his own studio of lacquer creations and artwork. Highly original, it can be tricky to find, so make sure you find a driver who knows where it is. A beautiful and creative space.

ERIC RAISINA

Renowned designer Eric Raisina brings a unique cocktail of influences to his couture. Born in Madagascar, raised in France and resident in Cambodia, he offers a striking collection of clothing and accessories. Ask him for a free tour of the workshop upstairs if he's around. There are additional branches around town, including at FCC Angkor.
